STOCKS.

The stock market was without any life yesterday. Belcher, which on account of expectations of what the mine may show up is a leading stock, was quite weak under a very light demand. Mexican and Union were firmly held at a fractional increase over yesterday's closing figures. Day recovered some of its lost ground. Eureka Con. was inactive but the asking rates were stiff at previous figares.

Between sessions there was very little soange, prices ruling about the same as in the previous session, with fractional recessions in many instances. There was a slight improvement in some of the Comstock stocks to the second session, but as a whole the market maintained the dullness which of late has characterized it.

There will be no session of the San Franeisco Board to-day, it being Good Friday.

MANAGER BASSETT-Soggs. - Last evening the APPEAL office sent an order to the Opera House for three seats. Manager Russell Bassett, (whose real name is Russell-Soggs), refused to allow any representative of the paper admittance to the theater without pay. The gentleman sent to write a notice of the performance accordingly paid his way in. Unable to understand why a manager should treat the press with such discourtesy, inquiries were made regarding the matter. Mr. Bassett stated to a member of the company that he had been insulted by a representative of this office. In short he had been presented with a bill for advertising and the collector, when asked to let the matter go another day, had declined a settlement on that basis. Hence the anger of Mr. Soggs-Bassett. The bill which the gentleman made such a stew about did not involve the whole amount of local notices ordered in by his agent. No charge was made for half a dozon notices under the supposition that Capt. Jack was at the helm. Jack has long been a favorite with writers on this coast, and there is not a newspaper in California or Nevada which is not glad to assist him. Thus Mr. Bassett-Soggs, the real mana ger of the troupe, shines with the borrowed light which reflects from Capt. Jack, and finds it greatly to his advantage. To the extra amount of advertising which Mr. Soggs, otherwise Bassett, has received by being associated with Capt. Jack, he is quite welcome. We recommend the newspapers of other towns to be as lenient as possible toward Mr. Soggs and make his temporary sojourn with them as pleasant as a Summer's dream by not presenting him with any bills for printing or advertising unless he chooses to seek the seclusion of the sanctum and settle unsolicited. When a great actor, such as we have declared Mr. Soggs to be (and we stick to it despite inqui ries at this office by the Commissioners of Lunacy) is burdened with the cares of study, the presentation of any business which savors of a vulgar commercial flavor is bound to turn the current of his thought awry. Mr. Soggs leaves for Eureka with his troupe on this evening's train. The company, as a whole, give a remarkably good performance, and the APPEAL can safely say that the Eurekans will be de lighted with the entertainment furnished by them. Even the presence of Mr. Soggs upon the stage does not stale the infinite variety of the altogether excellent performance

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—The editor of the Times called at the APPEAL office on Wed nesday night and asked if he could not exchange a font of type for a stand. The stand was useful to us and the font of type was not, from the fact that this office has about five times as much type as is needed. Flattered, however, by the call of so distinguished a man, and in order to appear accommodating, the exchange was made, and the font of type stored away with the "stock. During Mr. Niles' visit every effort was put forth to make him feel at home, and the usual courtesies extended to gentlemen who visit the APPEAL office, were indulged in. Next morning the young man se far forgot the amenities of a profession in which he seems to be a comparative novice, as to include in a column of cheap wit at the expense of the very parties who had put themselves out to accommodate him. He describes the reporter of the APPEAL working at his desk and "exhibiting every token of great mental distress." If the memory of the Times editor was in healthy state he would be very careful about alluding to "great mental distress" in anybody. It is to be hoped, however, that this article, written with the kindest intent, will not prevent the publisher of the Times from calling frequently. If the APPRAL office can furnish enough news in future to fill half his paper, he is welcome to drop in every day and take notes. Our desk and writing material are at his disposal, and should he need anything further from an extensive stock of printing material, he has but to make his wants known. The fact of his returning kindness with abuse or gentlemanly treatment with boorishness will be looked upon from a most charitable standpoint by the attaches of this office and not set down to any fault of his heart.

INDIAN SPORTS. - The young Washoe Indians have an amusing game in which a dog makes most of the fun. The boys and girls form in a compact body and one of the boys throws a rubber ball as far as he can. The dog rushes after it and as soon as he starts the group scatters in every direction and the children hide. The dog immediatly returns and begins to hunt his friends who are croughed down in dry goods boxes, behind hen coops and in convenient wood sheds. The dog tackles his work with considerable vim and in about three minutes routs all of them out of their hiding places. As soon as the last one is found the ball is again thrown and the dog runs about until he is completely worn out. In fact the dog does all the work and the children have all the fun. The dog never seems to suspect that he is being made game of, and is apparently perfectly satisfied with the arrangement.

MISS SOLTER LECTURE. -The friends of Miss Solter, who number the leading citizens of Carson, propose to have her deliver her lecture on Swedenborg at an early date. The unfortunate circumstances attending the attempt to give the lecture on a previous occamake the next effort a success.

BRIEF MENTION.

The Bedie stage is now getting in on time. J. C. Hagerman, of Reno, was in the city

Z. Swaringer, formerly of Aurora, wil please call at this office or send his address.

Manager Preddey has received a dispatch from Chas. Locke canceling Sothern's engage-

To-day is Good Briday, the principal fast day of the Roman Catholic and Episcopal Churches throughout the world.

The big stallion "Hercules" took an airing yesterday. As he walked down street he created quite a sensation. It was equal to a parade of the Carson Guards.

The benefit of D. Banks McKenzie comes off at the Opera House to-morrow night. The programme has been carefully selected and the entertainment promises to be rousingly patro-

The Eureka Leader says that the arrival of keg of beer at this office betokens an early fall instead of an early spring. The compositors won the fall after a six hours struggling with the keg.

Yesterday we chained a pair of scissors to the desk with a dog chain, and before night the "devil" had them in the back room cutting up a blotting pad into sections for making a gem puzzle.

Superintendent Crawford of the Mint is taking a great interest in the forthcoming ball. He is trying hard not to have any polkas or waltzes in the programme. The plain Missouri quadrille, or New Jersey hoe-down is good enough for him.

Some men would stand by and see a friend thrashed all to pieces, yet if any one casts slurs on the character of some mangy and mongrel dog that they carry about for a companion, they will inaugurate a row in the public street that will cost them $47 50 in the Police Court.

"There is nothing like content," as the hief said who went through the hen roost, Some men would not stop at the chickens, they would attempt to go through the house and get some jewelry." This same exhibition of wisdom would look well in stock speculators who after making a hundred per cent. profit, attempt to hog the whole mine.

FEASTS AND FASTS. -Te-night and to-mor row night the Jewish tradesmen of Carson wil close their stores at half past 6 o'clock in commemoration of the deliverance of the Jews from the bondage of Egypt and the crossing of the Red Sea. Thus it happens this year that the Jews are celebrating a feast while the Gentiles are commemorating the most solemn and tragic event of the history of the world, the crucifixion of Christ In the Catholic and Episcopal churches the most solemn services are observed and with the Catholics the lamps which burn throughout the year upon the altar are extinguished during the time which is supposed to have marked the Passion of the Savier. Last night the Rose Croix Knights of the Scottish Rite commemorated the Last Supper by appropriate ceremonies and a banquet at their lodge. Te-day there will be services of unusual solemnity at the Catholic and Episcopal churches and on Baster full services commemorative of the resurrection of Christ at all the churches.

SOTHERN. -- Sothern, the well known actor, contemplates coming to Nevada. The APPEAL warns the sagebrush press in advance not to allow him to cover himself with gratuitous advertising. Sothern has a trick of relating personal reminiscences (made up on the spot) to newspaper men, and as a rule they rush off and put them in print. He has managed for years to keep his name before the public at comparatively little expense. He saves little children from being run over (on paper;) res cues drowning men (in his mind;) and protects weak women from the assaults of professional prize fighters (through the press.) This is what is known in theatrical parlance as 'giving a guy a fill," and it is to be hoped that while in Nevada he will fine no guys to fill. Aside from the incomparable conceit the man manifests in wishing his common-place, every day acts paraded in print, he is a thorough artist and clever actor and will be warmly welcomed whenever he makes his appearance in Carson.

RAPID SHOOTING.—The gallery boys who witnessed Capt. Jack in his frontier dramas are all buying pistols and practicing rapid shooting. It is a source of intense delight to them to see a continuous stream of fire pouring out of his Colt's six-shooter or Winchester. Some people labor under the impression that he doesn't pull the trigger at all but has the combination wound up and turns the whole thing loose at once by touching a spring. Such may possibly be the case.

CHEAP ADVERTISING. - A few days ago a commercial lyric appeared in the APPEAL setting forth a machine versification the advantages to be derived in trading with Koppel & Platt. This poem is new going the rounds of the press just as if it was a sober effort on Spring or Hope. The ad. only cost Koppel & Platt $2 50, and they are at present getting about $50 a day worth of advertising through sion are well remembered. It is proposed to it. The moral of the above is so plain that he who runs may read.

TO THE PUBLIC.

We take pleasure ie saying to the public that Professor J. Langer, of Virginia City, has shown himself not only a competent and thorough teacher of violin, piano and vocal music, but that he is also a gentleman of culture and thoroughly conscientions towards his pupils. It is through his efforts, in a great measure that Miss Lizzie Davis has made such rapid progress with violin, piano and violon-DAVIS FAMILY. cello.

THE STUPID JACKALL. - One day a Black Bear remarked in the presence of a crowd of animals that he didn't go a cent on people who robbed graves. Immediately a Hyena rose up on his hind legs and began to howl. Seeing the attention of the other animals di rected to him he slunk off to his native wilds Shortly afterwards a Fex advised him to keep still when such allusions were made and the chances were that no one would suspect him.

"If I had received such advice years age," said the Hyena, "I might perhaps have profited by it, but I have given myself away so often that any attempt at unconcern only cocasions a smile with my neighbors. I am too well known here already.'

The Fox admitted the facts and trotted on.

A THREADBARE SUBJECT. - Yesterday morning the APPEAL received from an anonymous source what claimed to be a complete solution of the Gem puzzle. Our first idea was to "slam it in type," but on going over the figures to see if the moves came out all right we found that the ninth move was impossible. We next took half a dozen "solutions" from different papers and all were wrong. It would appear from this that a lot of conscienceless wags are writing out impossible solutions and sending them to the press. Thousands of people attempt to work them out by these processes and failing, butt their heads against stone walls under the idea that their brains are going wrong.

CAPT. JACK. - There was another good audience at the Carson Opera House last night. Capt. Jack came out specially strong in the leading role of California Through Death Valley. Crosbie was in a comedy role and a hoste in himself. Mr. Bassett's character was fairly sustained. Miss Edith Woodthorp added to the excellent impression she had made he night before. The play throughout is full of pathos and startling incidents, and one of the best pieces in Jack repertoire.

McFaddun-Barcook. - The McFadden Babcock trial attracted a large audience yesterday in the District Court. All the testimony in the case is being reduced to writing. The plaintiff closed yesterday. Babcock was on the stand yesterday afternoon and swore that he had paid McFadden his salary in full for all the time he had worked. The case will probably be concluded to-day.

Musical.-Miss Lizzie Davis, of Virginis City, teacher of the violin, comes to Carson every Monday and remains until Wednesday. A. Marston, photographer, or at the Arlington House. Lessons in dancing given by Brown & Davis at Arlington Hall every Tuesday from 11 a.m. till 9 p. m. Social every night after dancing school, m9

A DRY GOODS DREAM .- A woman who goes into M. Cohn's emporium drifts off into a dream of rare and beautiful feminine finery. She sees the best product of foreign looms piled up on the counters, laces, draperies, illusions and elegant toilette materials, such as only the rarest skill can produce and which women of taste admire. The secret of the success of this house lies in the fact that M. Cohn knows how to select the best and is never imposed upon by the eastern houses who work off their inferior goods on inexperienced persons.

ATTENTION !- The greatest wonder yet discovered in medicine is Mrs. Dr. Howe's celebrated rheumatism, neuralgia and toothache cures. Would you rather suffer the pain of having a tooth drawn than buy a bottle of Mrs. Dr. Howe's toothach medicine? Mothers should not be without it for their infants. A few drops in a little sweetened water to swab a teething baby's mouth will instantly relieve the little sufferer. The medicine does not canterize, and is very pleasant. Sold by all druggists.

No tartar can encrust them, no canker effect the enamel, no species of decay infest the dental bone, if SOZODONT is regularly used. It is a botanical preparation, and its beneficial effects on the teeth and gums are marvelous. as it removes all discolorations, and renders the gums hard and rosy.
